THE BRONX MUSEUM OF THE ARTS

1040 Grand Concourse (at 165th Street)
The Bronx, New York 10456-3999
Tel: (718)681-6000
Fax: (718)681-6189
Website: www.bronxmuseum.org
Email: info@bronxmuseum.org

Purpose: The Bronx Museum of the Arts is an internationally recognized cultural destination that presents innovative contemporary art exhibitions and education programs and is committed to promoting cross-cultural dialogues for diverse audiences. Since its founding in 1971, the Museum has played a vital role in the Bronx by helping to make art accessible to the entire community and connecting with local schools, artists, teens, and families through its robust education initiatives and public programs. In celebration of its 40th anniversary, the Museum implemented a universal free admission policy, supporting its mission to make arts experiences available to all audiences.

Collections: In 1986, The Bronx Museum began collecting works on paper by artists of African, Asian and Latin American ancestry to “reflect the borough’s dynamic communities,” a policy that was adapted in 1992 to include works in all media. Recognizing the Bronx’s cultural contributions—including the birth of artistic movements such as hip hop, graffiti art and Latin Jazz, that served as inspiration to many contemporary artists—in 1999 the Museum expanded its collecting practice to include works by artists for whom the Bronx has been critical to their artistic practice and development. Currently the Museum owns over 1,000 contemporary artworks in all media.

Our Mission: To create inspiring encounters with art that expand the ways we see ourselves, the world, and its possibilities.

Our Vision: Where great art and courageous conversations are catalysts for a more connected, civic, and empathetic world.

Our values: Great Art and Great Art Experiences - We hold ourselves to the highest standards of curatorial excellence—from great art and original shows to beautiful installations and canon-expanding scholarship. We strive to create and present inspirational and transformative engagement with our collections, exhibitions, programming, and educational offerings, welcoming all visitors with respect and a true sense of hospitality; Many Histories and a Shared Future - We work to be conscious of the narratives that shape our visitors’ views of history and their place in the world as well as our own, and we seek out and promote perspectives that expand the stories we tell. We believe the Museum is a place where people can see themselves with dignity and each other with empathy, care, and respect. As a public, civic institution we believe it is our mandate to contribute to the advancement of society with a commitment to true connectedness and diversity; Openness and Free Expression - We believe that the open and free exchange of ideas among people of diverse beliefs, cultures, and experiences stimulates new understandings and expands insights into our shared humanity and promotes social generosity. We also recognize that differing views may sometimes be met with discomfort and dissent. Since we see ourselves as a conduit for open sharing and learning, we accept the controversies that may accompany courageous conversations; Action and Impact - We celebrate the cultural vibrancy of our local communities and help build meaningful relationships that elevate and strengthen them. Believing that in action there is hope, we champion the powerful roles art and artists can play in our communities both inside and outside the Museum’s walls; Experimentation and Risk - In an effort to expand our mission and impact, we strive to be a nimble organization that consistently pursues innovative strategies. We value the challenges associated with trying new things and adapt our strategies as we learn; Professionalism and Passion - We seek to create a work environment that values hard work, professionalism, accountability, creativity, and achievement. We are committed to creating a community of talented, passionate people who are inspired to make the Museum an important hub of community activity and a great global destination, grow their professional skills, and work collaboratively with colleagues they admire and respect.

Purpose: The Dahesh Museum of Art is the only institution in the United States devoted to collecting, exhibiting, and interpreting works by Europe’s academically trained artists of the 19th and early 20th centuries. The Dahesh serves a diverse audience by placing these artists in the broader context of 19th-century visual culture, and by offering a fresh appraisal of the role academies played in reinvigorating the classical ideals of beauty, humanism, and skill. It now travels its exhibitions nationally and internationally, as well as loaning works from its collection to distinguished museums around the world.

Collections: Actively builds on a collection of 19th and early 20th century European and American academic art. Browse the collection online.

Current & Future Exhibitions: See website for traveling exhibitions and loans.

Facilities: The Dahesh Museum of Art Gift Shop at 145 Sixth Avenue (between Dominick and Spring Streets) Tue-Sat 10-5

THE GRACIE MANSION CONSERVANCY

181 East End Avenue (at E. 88th Street)
New York, New York 10128
Tel: (212) 676-3060
Website: graciemansion.org
Email: gracieinfo@cityhall.nyc.gov; PGunther@cityhall.nyc.gov

Purpose: The Gracie Mansion Conservancy is a private not-for-profit corporation established in 1981 to preserve, maintain, enhance, and enliven Gracie Mansion - one of the oldest surviving wood structures in Manhattan and home to the sitting mayors of New York City and their families since 1942, when the LaGuardia’s arrived as the first official residents. Its mission is to serve as the mansion’s curator, interpreter, and programmer and in turn to secure the charitable resources required to implement these intertwined tasks. While the City of New York through the Department of Parks and Recreation is responsible for day-to-day operations and the capital infrastructure of the Mansion, the Conservancy raises partnership funds to restore and decorate the historic interior and provide public access via tours, programs, and diverse media platforms. The goal is to illustrate the rich history of New York and to press this context of continuity into service in helping to shape the City’s dynamic future.

GREEN-WOOD

500 25th Street (@ Fifth Avenue)
Brooklyn, New York 11232
Tel: 718-210-3080
Website: www.green-wood.com
Email: contactus@green-wood.com

Purpose: National Historic Landmark Cemetery. Founded in 1838 as one of America’s first rural cemeteries, Green-Wood quickly developed an international reputation for its magnificent beauty and became the fashionable place to be buried. By 1860, Green-Wood was attracting 500,000 visitors a year, rivaling Niagara Falls as the country’s greatest tourist attraction. Crowds flocked to Green-Wood to enjoy family outings, carriage rides and sculpture viewing in the finest of first generation American landscapes. Green-Wood’s popularity helped inspire the creation of public parks, including New York...
City’s Central and Prospect Parks. Green-Wood presents 478 spectacular acres of hills, valleys, glacial ponds and paths, throughout which exists one of the country’s largest outdoor collections of 19th- and 20th-century statuary and mausoleums. With more than 8,000 trees, every season offers a peaceful and beautiful oasis to visitors, as well as to its 560,000 permanent residents, including Leonard Bernstein, Boss Tweed, Charles Ebbets, Jean-Michel Basquiat, Louis Comfort Tiffany, Horace Greeley, Civil War generals, baseball legends, politicians, artists, entertainers and inventors. Notably, Green-Wood is also home to hundreds of artists of the 19th- and 20th centuries. These include Asher B. Durand, George Catlin, George Eastman, William Merritt Chase, and Jean Michel Basquiat; in all over 440 artists. Since its founding 183 years ago, Green-Wood has been much more than a place to bury and honor the dead. It is a haven of calm in a crowded, frenetic city – a park filled with magnificent architecture and statuary, meandering pathways, gardens and trees, and serene bodies of water.

Fax: (718) 482-9454
Website: www.ps1.org
Email: mail_ps1@moma.org

Purpose: MoMA PS1 champions art and artists at the intersection of the social, cultural, and political issues of their time. Providing audiences with the agency to ask questions, access to knowledge, and a forum for public debate, PS1 has offered insight into artists’ diverse worldviews for more than 40 years. Founded in 1976 by Alanna Heiss, the institution was a defining force in the alternative space movement in New York City, transforming a nineteenth century public schoolhouse in Long Island City into a site for artistic experimentation and creativity. PS1 has been a member of New York City’s Cultural Institutions Group (CIG) since 1982, and affiliated with The Museum of Modern Art since 2000.

Collections: MoMA PS1 is a non-collecting museum; however, there are many long-term installations maintained throughout the building. Artists include James Turrell, Pipilotti Rist, Ernesto Caivano, William Kentridge, and Richard Artschwager.

Ongoing and Current & Future Exhibitions: MoMA PS1 Artist Interventions (ongoing); Rashid Johnson: Stage (ongoing); Niki de Saint Phalle: Structures for Life (thru Sept21); Gregg Bordowitz: I Wanna Be Well (through Oct21); Greater New York (Oct21-Apr22)

Purpose: The Museum of Arts and Design (MAD) champions contemporary makers across creative fields, presenting artists, designers, and artisans who apply the highest level of ingenuity and skill to their work. Since the Museum’s founding in 1956 by philanthropist and visionary Aileen Osborn Webb, MAD has celebrated all facets of making and the creative processes by which materials are transformed, from traditional techniques to cutting-edge technologies. Today, the Museum’s curatorial program builds upon a rich history of exhibitions that emphasize a cross-disciplinary approach to art and design, and reveals the workmanship behind the objects and environments that shape our everyday lives. MAD provides an international platform for practitioners who

Purpose: The Museum of Chinese in America (MOCA) aims to engage audiences in an ongoing and historical dialogue, in which people of all backgrounds are able to see American history through a critical perspective, to reflect on their own experiences, and to make meaningful connections between the past and the present, the global and the local, themselves and others. Since its founding in 1980, MOCA has celebrated the living history of the Chinese experience in America by preserving and presenting the 200-year history, heritage, culture, and diverse experiences of American communities of Chinese descent. In 2020, MOCA was designated by a consortium led by the Ford Foundation as one of twenty of America’s Cultural Treasures. Being recognized as one of the significant national anchors for artistic and cultural diversity in America further validates MOCA’s work in the past 41 years and empowers the Museum to chart an even bolder course.

Collections: Photographs, video installations, oral histories, textiles, documents, signage that represent the Chinese experience in America (19th century to the present).

Tel: (212)219-0302
Fax: (212)966-4782
Website: www.eldridgestreet.org
Email: contact@eldridgestreet.org

Purpose: The Museum at Eldridge Street is housed in the historic Eldridge Street Synagogue, opened in 1887 as the first great house of worship built by Eastern European Jewish immigrants in America. A meticulous late-20th century restoration and a modern stained glass intervention have revived this National Historic Landmark to stunning grandeur. Today, the Museum explores the culture, history, and ongoing legacy of the great wave of Jewish immigrants to the Lower East Side. Tours, programs, exhibitions, school programs and a summer festival honor history while drawing parallels with diverse cultural communities across the globe.

Collections: The Museum has a collection of 500 artifacts that include Jewish ritual items, neighborhood Yiddish signs, and historic documents, photographs, and artifacts related to the early history of the Eldridge Street Synagogue and its later restoration.

Current and Future Exhibitions: The Museum’s permanent exhibition details the history of the synagogue building and its early congregation through historic artifacts, building materials, photos and video. Rotating exhibitions explore themes of Jewish cultural heritage, Lower East Side history and culture, immigration, architecture and preservation, often pairing with contemporary artists or other partners.

Hours: Sun-Thurs 10-5, Fri 10-3. Self-guide and docent-led tours available; check website for latest schedule.

Admission: $15 adults, $10 seniors/students, $8 children ages 5-18, free for children under 5. Admission is ‘pay what you wish’ on Mondays. Tours are included in the price of admission. Group tour rates also available.

Facilities: Our facility is ADA-compliant on all three floors and includes a sanctuary level seating 150, a balcony level seating 100, a first floor seating area for 50, the Gural-Rabinowitz Family Historic Center seating 14, a Gift Shop, and exhibitions galleries.

Purpose: Founded in 1969 by the Fashion Institute of Technology, The Museum at FIT is dedicated to advancing knowledge of fashion through exhibitions, programs and publications. The Museum at FIT collects, conserves, documents, exhibits, and interprets fashion. The collecting policy of The Museum focuses on aesthetically and historically significant “directional” clothing, accessories, textiles and visual materials, with emphasis on contemporary avant-garde fashion. The Museum is committed to achieving a world-class standard of excellence in the exhibition of fashion. The Museum organizes an extensive program of specialized classes, tours, lectures, and symposia for diverse local, national, and international audiences. As a “think-tank” for fashion studies, The Museum is dedicated to an ambitious program of scholarly publication, new initiatives, and research opportunities for students, scholars and designers.

Collections: The Museum at FIT's permanent collection includes approximately 35,000 garments and 15,000 accessories dating from the mid-18th century to the present. The strength of the collection lies in the 20th and 21st century high fashion, both couture and ready-to-wear. The Museum has three galleries: The Fashion and Textile History Gallery features changing selections from the museum's permanent collections. Open year-round, its changing exhibitions are organized chronologically, to present 250 years of fashion history. The Special Exhibitions Gallery is devoted to thematic exhibitions, usually on contemporary fashion. Gallery FIT is devoted to student exhibitions.

Mission: Museum of the Moving Image advances the understanding, enjoyment, and appreciation of the art, history, technique, and technology of film, television, and digital media by presenting exhibitions, education programs, significant moving-image works, and interpretive programs, and collecting and preserving moving-image related artifacts.

Collections: The Museum’s collection comprises more than 130,000 objects illustrating every element of the production, promotion, and exhibition of movies, television, and digital entertainment, from the inception of motion pictures at the turn of the twentieth century to the present day. This unique, historically significant body of artifacts includes licensed merchandise, technical apparatus, still photographs, design materials, costumes, marketing materials, video and computer games, and moving image artworks. In 2014, the Museum acquired a significant collection of artifacts related to the work of Jim Henson.

Current & Future Exhibitions: In the Galleries: spanning two floors and 15,000 square feet, the Museum’s core exhibition Behind the Screen is an innovative blend of more than 1,200 historic artifacts, commissioned artworks, four hours of video clips, and fifteen interactive experiences. Visitors can make animations, select sound effects, and create flipbooks of themselves, among other activities. Artifacts, mostly selections from the Museum’s collection, relate to every stage of producing, promoting, and exhibiting motion pictures, television shows, and digital media. Alongside Behind the Screen is a gallery dedicated to exploring Jim Henson’s groundbreaking work for film and television, and his impact on culture. The Jim Henson Exhibition features a broad range of objects representing his entire career span, and reveals how Henson and his team of builders, performers, and writers brought to life the endurably popular worlds of The Muppet Show, the Muppet movies, Sesame Street, Fraggle Rock,
The Dark Crystal, and Labyrinth. The Jim Henson Exhibition: Imagination Unlimited, is a traveling version of the exhibition, and can be seen at the Contemporary Jewish Museum, San Francisco, CA (Mar–Jul22). The Museum also hosts a broad range of temporary exhibitions and installations, including A Wonderful, Awful Idea: Animating the Grinch Who Stole Christmas (Nov21–Feb22), and Deepfake: Unstable Evidence on Screen (Dec21–May22).

For a complete listing of all exhibitions and installations upcoming and currently on view, visit http://www.movingimage.us/exhibitions/.

In the Theaters: Each year the Museum screens more than 500 films in a mix of classic and contemporary cinema, with outstanding films from around the world, frequently with personal appearances. Ongoing screening series and festivals include: See It Big!, First Look Festival, New Adventures in Nonfiction, Always on Sunday: Greek Film Series, World of Animation, and Jim Henson’s World. In addition, the Museum presents retrospectives, new releases of independent and international film, and family matinee programs. Opening in the Beverly Hills Library 2022
Tel: (310) 786-1025 (information line)
Purpose: The Paley Center for Media, with locations in New York and Los Angeles, leads the discussion about the cultural, creative, and social significance of television, radio, and emerging platforms for the professional community and media-interested public. Drawing upon its curatorial expertise, an international collection, and close relationships with the leaders of the media community, the Paley Center examines the intersections between media and society. The general public can access the collection and participate in programs that explore and celebrate the creativity, the innovations, the personalities and the leaders who are shaping media. Through the global programs of its Media Council and International Council, the Paley Center also serves as a neutral setting where media professionals can engage in discussion and debate about the evolving media landscape. Previously known as The Museum of Television & Radio, the Paley Center was founded in 1976 by William S. Paley, a pioneering innovator in the industry.
Collections: International Collection of the nation's largest publicly accessible archive with over 160,000 programs from over 70 countries, spanning almost 100 years of television, radio, and new media content including news, public affairs programs and documentaries, performing arts programs, children's programming, sports, comedy and variety shows, and commercial advertising.

POSTER HOUSE

119 W. 23rd Street
New York, New York, 10011
Tel: 917 722-4239
Email: info@posterhouse.org
Website: www.posterhouse.org
Purpose: Poster House is the first museum in the United States dedicated exclusively to posters. Through exhibitions, events, and publications, Poster House presents a global view of posters from their earliest appearance in the late 1800s, to their present-day use. Poster House takes its mission from the medium, aiming to engage and educate all audiences as we investigate this large format graphic design and its public impact. Poster House was founded in 2015 with an eye towards filling a long-acknowledged gap in the New York cultural landscape. While there are several poster museums around the world, New York, with its long relationship with advertising and design, did not have such a dedicated public institution. Poster House opened its doors on June 20, 2019.
Collections: Poster House actively collects posters that 1) are historically or aesthetically important to the field, 2) supports future museum programming, and 3) can be part of the Poster House Living Archive. The Poster House Living Archive is a collection of contemporary posters from around the world. Our Living Archive includes posters from the 2017 Women’s March in Boston, SVA’s poster collection, posters from the Type Directors Club archives, and more. In our permanent collection, we have a selection of posters in our Café, in addition to four Chéret proofs in our stairwell, a billboard exhibition space, and our timeline of poster printing history.
Current & Future Exhibitions: Poster House’s main exhibitions are largely curated, loaned temporary shows that change about every six months. Ethel Reed: I Am My Own Property (Feb-Aug22); Behind the Camera: The Unknown Women of Hollywood (Apr-Oct22); Posters for the Tokyo Olympiad (Apr-Oct22); Masked Vigilantes On Silent Motorbikes (Sept22-Feb23); Air India’s Maharaja: Advertising Gone Rogue (Sep22-Feb23); With My Little Eye: Warnings for the Homeland (Oct22-Apr23)
Always take center stage.
Smaller species found in the zoo. California sea lions and troop of Hamadryas baboons are among the many small wild cats, beautiful reptiles, amphibians, and birds. Purpose: Snug Harbor Cultural Center & Botanical Garden is the largest, ongoing adaptive reuse project in America. It consists of 28 historical buildings, including several New York City landmarks on a unique 83-acre campus in Staten Island. Formerly Sailors’ Snug Harbor, a home for retired sailors built in the 1800s, Snug Harbor is now a distinguished regional arts center where history, architecture, visual art, theater, dance, music, environmental science, and botanical gardens provide dynamic experiences for all ages. Snug Harbor is also home to the Newhouse Center for Contemporary Art, the Snug Harbor Artist Residency Program (SHARP), the Noble Maritime Collection, Art Lab, Children’s Harbor Montessori School, and Staten Island Conservatory of Music. Snug Harbor is a proud affiliate of the Smithsonian Institution.

Collections:
- Nestled within the grounds of Snug Harbor are several beautiful gardens all serving different purposes for the community. The Botanical Garden consists of displays that represent the variety of flora that can be manipulated to conform to what is desired, whether it be aesthetic or functional. Snug Harbor is home to first class collections of Dogwood, Rhododendron, Chinese Tree Peony, Orchid, Bearded Iris, and Daylily collections. Visitors can find these collections in gardens like the New York Chinese Scholar’s Garden, Richmond County Savings Foundation Tuscan Garden, White Garden, Healing Garden, Connie Gretz Secret Garden, Rose Garden, and Lion Sensory Garden.

Purpose: Founded in 1967, the South Street Seaport Museum preserves and interprets the origins and growth of New York City as a world port—a place where goods, labor, and cultures are exchanged through work, commerce, and the interaction of diverse communities. SSSM uses its collections and archives, historic buildings and ships, maritime reference library, and reproduction 19th-century job printing shops to inspire visitors to explore New York’s maritime origins. Through interactive exhibits, hands-on educational programs, and unique experiences, the Seaport Museum encourages people of all backgrounds to reflect on our shared maritime heritage at a local, national, and global level.

Collections: The South Street Seaport Museum’s collections consist of over 28,000 works of art and artifacts, and over 55,000 archival materials, documenting the history of New York City’s port, from its earliest days in the 17th century until today. The collection includes paintings, drawings, prints and photographs; manuscripts and ephemera; ship models; scrimshaw; and various historic objects related to trade from the seaport district itself, including those from the Fulton Fish Market, the coffee and tea industry, navigational instruments and shipwright tools, historic buildings in lower Manhattan, and letterpress printing and the advertising industry, which supported the growth of New York as a financial powerhouse. In addition to those accessioned artifacts, the Museum holds a maritime reference library and an archival collection of approximately 30,000 ship plans, 18,000 publications, a reference photo archive, and historic documents and ephemera related to the business of the district and downtown New York City, New York-based vessels and shipyards, ocean travel, and general maritime subjects.

Current & Future Exhibitions: Ongoing, open with general admission: “South Street and the Rise of New York” at Schermerhorn Row ground floor, 12 Fulton Street; “Millions: Migrants and Millionaires aboard the Great Liners, 1900-1914” at Schermerhorn Row ground floor, 12 Fulton Street. New exhibitions in the newly renovated historic Thompson Warehouse are slated to open in 2022.

Ongoing, open during special tours: “The Architecture of Trade: Schermerhorn Row and The Seaport” at Schermerhorn Row 4th floor galleries, 12 Fulton Street. Additional displays, open with general admission, on board the Museum’s tall ship Wavertree and lightship Ambrose at Pier 16.

Purpose: Founded in 1881 and celebrating its 140th year, the Staten Island Museum engages visitors with interdisciplinary exhibitions, public programs, and educational activities for all ages. It is the mission of the Staten Island Museum to spark curiosity and generate meaningful shared experiences through natural science, art, and history to deepen understanding of our environment, ourselves, and each other. The original Museum building, near the Staten Island Ferry in St. George (1918), houses the Natural Science collection and is accessible to researchers. Less than two miles down the road on the grounds of the Snug Harbor Cultural Center and Botanical Garden is the flagship location, the Staten Island Museum at Snug Harbor (Building A, 2015). Snug Harbor is an 83-acre campus situated on parkland that is home to several cultural agencies in a unique cluster of 19th century Greek Revival buildings. Plans are in the works to renovate the adjacent building, B, in order to bring all collections with related exhibitions and public programs to the site.

Collections: Staten Island Museum holdings are organized into three main collections: (1) Natural Sciences, (2) Fine Art, and (3) History Archives & Library, encompassing over a 1,000,000 specimens, works of art, and historic documents. History Adarchives & Library contains more than 1,500 linear feet of records, including 55,000 books, 30,000 periodicals and historical artifacts. The Art Collection dates from ancient to contemporary. The Natural Science Collection is of national significance documenting the bio-diversity of New York City for the past 150 years and includes 500,000 entomological specimens including the largest Cicada collection in North America, 25,000 plant specimens, geological, shell, and archeological specimens from the largest collection of the Native Lenape tribe in the NYC area.

Current & Future Exhibitions: Remember the Mastodon (biodiversity), Jennifer Angus: Magicicada (thru May22); Staten Island SEEN (landscape paintings). Opening the Treasure Box (World Art) and From Farm to City (history). Planned future shows include Yes, And: a survey exhibition of art and artists connected to Staten Island.

The Studio Museum in Harlem is the nexus for artists of African descent, locally, nationally and internationally, and for work that has been inspired and influenced by Black culture. It is a site for the dynamic exchange of ideas about art and society. Collections: The Museum has been accepting donations since 1968 and began a formal acquisitions program in 1979. The permanent collection includes more than 2,000 paintings, sculptures, watercolors, drawings, pastels, prints, photographs, mixed media works, and installations. These works have been acquired through donation and purchase, and in 2001, the SMH inaugurated an Acquisitions Committee that donates funds for purchases to the collection. The collection includes works by artists such as Terry Adkins, Romare Bearden, Robert Colescott, Melvin Edwards, Richard Hunt, Lois Mailou Jones, Jacob Lawrence, Norman Lewis, Betye Saar, Nari Ward, and Hale Woodruff.

Exhibitions and Events: The Studio Museum’s building at 144 W. 125th Street is closed for construction of our new museum. Our inharlem initiative presents exhibitions and events at a variety of partner and satellite locations in Harlem. Other programs take place digitally, and at partner locations throughout the city and beyond.

Hours: n/a

Admission: n/a

Facilities: The Studio Museum in Harlem is constructing a new home on Manhattan’s West 125th Street, replacing its current facility with a structure designed expressly for its program by architect Sir David Adjaye OBE. The five-story, 82,000-square-foot project will provide the custom-built and expanded facilities, enriched visitor experience and strong architectural presence appropriate to a premier center for contemporary artists of African descent, the principal visual art institution in Harlem and a magnet for visitors from around the world. This new building will include permanent collection galleries, 100-seat auditorium, workshop space, reading room, and an outdoor terrace.

Annual Attendance: Building currently closed for construction

New York, New York 10006
Tel: (212) 602-0800
Fax: (212) 602-0893
Website: www.trinitywallstreet.org

Purpose: Both Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel are active sites for worship. They are historical buildings with over 300 years of history from 1766 to 9/11 to present day. The Trinity churchyard is home to the gravesite of Alexander Hamilton and other historic memorials and monuments. The present building is the third on the site, consecrated in 1846 and designed by British-born architect Richard Upjohn in the 19th century Gothic Revival style. George Washington prayed at St. Paul’s Chapel after his inauguration as President in 1789. The chapel also played an important role in supporting the NYC community after 9/11. Located a few blocks north of Trinity Church, it is an active site for worship, music concerts, and community outreach.

Collections: Archival material, photographs, and artifacts representing Trinity’s involvement in the religious, political and social history of Lower Manhattan and New York, including 9/11.

Current & Future Exhibitions: The Chapel of Rememberance inside St. Paul’s Chapel commemorates the events of Sept. 11, 2001. Trinity Church has been recently rejuvenated, with a new stained-glass window to be installed by mid 2022.

Hours: Please see trinitywallstreet.org for updates and additional events

Trinity Church | Monday-Friday online only; Trinity Church is open for worship on Sundays. St. Paul’s Chapel is open for Compline by Candlelight on Sunday evenings starting on March 13, 2022.

The Whitney Museum of American Art

99 Gansevoort Street
New York, New York 10014
Tel: (212)570-3600, (212)570-7720 (groups)
Fax: (212)570-1807
Website: www.whitney.org, http://www.whitney.org
Email: info@whitney.org

Purpose: The Whitney seeks to be the defining museum of 20th- and 21st-century American art. The museum collects, exhibits, preserves, researches, and interprets the art of the United States in the broadest global, historical, and interdisciplinary contexts. As the preeminent advocate for American art, it fosters the work of living artists at critical moments in their careers. The Whitney educates a diverse public through direct interaction with artists, often before their work has achieved general acceptance.

Collections: The Whitney’s collection includes over 22,000 works created by more than 3,000 artists in the United States during the twentieth and twenty-first centuries. These works in all mediums—painting, sculpture, drawing, printmaking, photography, film, video, installation, and new media—serve as a remarkable resource for understanding art history and the creative process of artists in the United States from 1900 to today.

Current & Future Exhibitions: Jasper Johns: Mind/Mirror (thru Feb22); Making Knowing: Craft in Art (1960–2019) (thru Feb22); My Barbarian (thru Feb22); Labyrinth of Forms: Women and Abstraction, 1930–1950 (thru Mar22); Jennifer Packer: The Eye is not Satisfied with Seeing (Oct21–Apr22); The Whitney’s Collection: Selections from 1900 to 1965 (thru May22); Whitney Biennial 2022: Quiet As It’s Kept (Apr–Aug/Sept22); At the Dawn of a New Age: Early Twentieth-Century American Modernism (May22–Jan23); Martine Gutierrez: Supremacy (Sept22–Mar23); Edward Hopper’s New York (Oct22–Mar23); No Existe Un Mundo PosHuracan: Puerto Rican Art in the Wake of Hurricane Maria (Nov22–Apr23)

Hours: Mon, Wed, Thurs and Sat 10:30–6; Tues closed, Fri 10:30–10.

Facilities: The new Whitney (with 200,000 square feet) opened to the public on May 1, 2015. Designed by architect Renzo Piano and situated between the High Line and the Hudson River, the building vastly increased the Whitney’s exhibition and programming space, providing the first comprehensive view of its unsurpassed collection of modern and contemporary American art.
